ITINERARY FOR THE 40 DAY ITALY, ALPS & THE MEDITERRANEAN CARAVAN IN THE SPRING OF 2013

Caravanning doesn't get any better than this!

DAY # 1 Saturday, April 6

Travel Day YOUR CITY USA-CDN / MUNICH D

Leave the USA and fly to GERMANY from airport of your choice. Arrive next day (AM) in MUNICH. You may also want to consider leaving home earlier and doing some sightseeing on your own or if you are a member of the International Caravanning Association (ICA) connecting up with one of their outings. Either of these options are available to you before the start of our caravan or once it has ended.

NOTE: We REQUIRE that each party take out an emergency medical and trip cancellation insurance policy.

DAY # 2 Sunday, April 7

Stay Over MUNICH D (Hotel)

Sally and I will be there to meet you once you arrive in Munich, so please plan your flight so that you arrive as early as possible at the MUNICH airport. You will take a shuttle to the nearby hotel where you will spend the night. Once you check into the hotel you will have free time to rest up after your flight or you can begin exploring by taking the S-Bahn (train) into Munich. We will all meet for a hosted group welcome and get acquainted dinner that evening.

DAY # 3 Monday, April 8 46 Km / 29 M

Travel Day MUNICH D

After a good night's sleep, we will be picked up, as a group, at our hotel and transferred to the motorhome rental agency, some distance away. We will get checked out on our motorhomes before continuing to two nearby grocery stores to buy provisions, then onto the 1st night's campground (CG), also some distance away on the outskirts of Munich. You should have a little time to settle in before beginning our adventure.

DAY # 4 Tuesday, April 9

Stay Over MUNICH D

Free day. Take the subway into MUNCHEN. Enjoy the famous Hofbrahaus (beer hall) for lunch. Visit downtown MUNCHEN's churches, museums, stores, Viktualien Markt (outdoor food market) and Rathaus (town hall) on Marienplatz to watch a glockenspiel and clock with very animated mechanical figures that perform twice daily. Also, nearby at Dachau is the WW II concentration camp museum, which you can either drive or take the S-Bahn (train) to in lieu of visiting Munich.

DAY # 5 Wednesday, April 10 400 Km / 248 M

Travel Day MUNICH D / LANA I

In the morning drive through the picturesque German countryside and its villages. Stop at Prien am Chiemsee and take a boat to Herrenchiemsee, one of Ludwig II's very ornate castles on an island. In the afternoon take the motorway down through Austria and the Alps at Brenner Pass at the Austrian / Italy border into the Trentino-Alto Aidge Region and the Dolomite Mountains continuing on to Lana, Italy, just a few km west of Bolzano. Note, many of the towns in northwest Italy have both Italian and German names as prior to the end of WW I this area was a part of the Austro-Hungarian Empire and a large percentage of the populace still speak only German.

DAY # 6 Thursday, April 11

Stay Over LANA I (BOLZANO I)

Day visit, via public transportation (train), the use of which will be typical throughout this caravan, to the sights of Bolzano (Bozen) where you can visit the original "Otzi the Ice Man" on display at the South Tirol Museum of Archeology. There also are cable cars to the Oberbozen here, as well as shops and other interesting sights.

DAY # 7 Friday, April 12 186 Km / 115 M

Travel Day LANA I / VERONA I

We begin the morning wandering the back roads through the mountain passes, the apple orchards and vineyards and then on to Verona. If you get in early enough you may want to begin your exploration of Verona.

DAY # 8 Saturday, April 13

Stay Over VERONA I

We will venture into Verona via public transportation (bus) from our nearby campsite. Most all sights are in the charming old town area and are accessible via a self-guided walking tour. The sights range from the 1st century Roman arena (coliseum), to a Duomo (historic church), old medieval castles that are now museums and “Juliette’s Balcony” on the 13th century house once owned by Dal Cappello (Capulet) family.

We will access Venice from our campground via public transportation (40 min boat ride). The boat docks near St. Mark’s square where you will find the Doge’s Palace, Clock Tower, St. Mark’s Basilica, Correr Museum and the pigeons. From there you can either walk or take a “Vaporetto” (motorized canal boat) to visit the National Archaeological Museum and Monumental Rooms of Marciana National Library within the museum, the Peggy Guggenheim Collection, Gallerie Accademia (*See Reservation Info.) and Scuola San Rocco. Remember, you can not get lost in Venice, as you are on an island, so explore.

Stay Over PUNTA SABBIONI I (VENICE)

Continue with activities listed from the previous day.

DAY # 12 Wednesday, April 17 360 Km / 223 M

Travel Day PUNTA SABBIONI I (VENICE) / FLORENCE I

Before we begin our drive south along the coastline of the Adriatic Sea we will go inland a ways to the sights of Padova (Padua). From there we return to the coast passing through Chioggia, which is described as a smaller, less touristy version of Venice. Ravenna is a must stop to see its 1,500 year old churches and their West Byzantine mosaics. Then we leave the coast as we head inland to Florence where we camp in a campground situated on a hill in an olive grove, just below Michelangelo Piazza that overlooks Florence and across the river from the historic downtown area.

DAY # 13 Thursday, April 18

Stay Over FLORENCE I

Again public transportation is the best way to get around the city. Michelangelo’s David is housed in the Accademia Galleria (*See Reservation Info.) along with numerous other sculptures and famous paintings. The Uffizi Gallery (*See Reservation Info.) houses some of the most famous paintings and sculptures in the world. You can also visit the Santa Maria del Fiore (Duomo) and Duomo museum, the Orsanmichele Church, the Pitti Palace and Boboli Gardens, The Palatine Gallery.

DAY # 14 Friday, April 19

Stay Over FLORENCE I

Continue with activities listed from the previous day.

- DAY # 15 Saturday, April 20 96 Km / 60 M
Travel Day FLORENCE I / SAN GIMIGNANO I
 We drive through the heart of Tuscany today. The “castles” that you will see dotting the countryside are not “castles” at all, but medieval walled towns. We will stay just outside one of these wonderful medieval walled towns tonight and you can spend most of the day exploring it.
- DAY # 16 Sunday, April 21 240 Km / 149 M
Travel Day SAN GIMIGNANO I / ROME I
 We continue south, leaving Tuscany, to the hill country towns of Montepulciano (noted for its vino), Orvieto (Cathedral) and the ancient little village of Civita di Bagnoregio (walled medieval town).
- DAY # 17 Monday, April 22
Stay Over ROME I
 Ah, Rome, where should we begin? We will take the train into Rome via a free shuttle bus from our CG to the local train station. The information that we provide you will group the sights within a given area and you can decide, which of those you want to see. For now we will just give you a “laundry list” of sights available: The Colosseum; Palatine Hill; Imperial Palace; Circus Maximus; Iron Age Huts of Romulus and Remus; The Vatican; St. Peter’s Basilica.; Vatican Museum & Sistine Chapel (*See Reservation Info.); The Forum; Arch of Titus; Basilica of Constantine; Temple of Julius Caesar; The Temple of Vesta; The Curia (Senate House); Temple of Saturn; Pantheon; Borghese Gallery (*See Reservation Info.).

- DAY # 19 Wednesday, April 24
Stay Over ROME I
 Continue with activities listed from the previous day.
- DAY # 20 Thursday, April 25 237 Km / 147 M
Day Trip ROME I (Day trip to Ercolano/Herculaneum)
 Day trip, via motorhome carpool, to Ercolano and the ruins of Herculaneum (smaller, less crowded version of Pompeii). Herculaneum is a small and in some ways a better preserved version of Pompeii. It’s buildings were encapsulated by the volcanic mud and rock flow from the 79 AD Mt. Vesuvius eruption, thus preserving everything as it was, including carbonizing many of the original wood members. A number of the frescos and mosaics are also well preserved. Much of Herculaneum still remains buried under the town of Ercolano, which is a suburb of Naples.
- DAY # 21 Friday, April 26 394 Km / 244 M
Travel Day ROME I / PISA I
 We will be traveling the Mediterranean coastline through Tuscany, plan on a picnic today. The village of Tarquinia has a UNESCO World Heritage site with 200 paintings in its Etruscan Necropolis that date from the 7th century BC. Be sure and walk into Pisa after you arrive and take advantage of the good soft light of the late afternoon sun for your photographs. Explore Pisa by walking from the campground (≈1 km). Visit the Piazza dei Miracoli, a UNESCO World Heritage site with its Duomo, Baptistery (the largest in Italy) and Camposanto Cemetery. Plus, the world famous leaning tower of Pisa. Have dinner in town and enjoy the evening.
- DAY # 22 Saturday, April 27 116 Km / 72 M
Travel Day PISA I / CINQUE TERRE I
 Spend the morning in Pisa, before continuing on to Cinque Terre. Stop at the City of Lucca and walk all or part of its 2.5 mile rampart wall and get the feel of this ancient structure, parts of which date back 2,000 years to Roman origin. Arrive at Deiva Marina, which is a very short distance from the 5 Cities area (Cinque Terre), and begin to explore the area.

This itinerary may be changed or modified at any time without advance notice at the will of the caravan travel consultants. This itinerary is the exclusive property of Overseas RV Camping Caravans. DAY # 23 Sunday, April 28Stay Over CINQUE TERRE I

Cinque Terre or the Five Villages area (Riomaggiore, Manarolo, Corniglia, Vernazza & Monterosso al Mare) borders the Cinque Terre National Park with many miles of hiking trails (a fee is charged to access them) and the area has some of the most pristine beaches along the Mediterranean coast. The best way to see the area is by the hourly local trains (they are very reasonably priced) or hike. Two of the villages are only a 15 minute walk apart along the “Amore Path”. Each of the villages has its own unique personality and charm.

DAY # 24 Monday, April 29Stay Over CINQUE TERRE I

The Castle of Torrechiara exists almost unchanged from the 15th century. There are other castle visits to choose from as we make our way to Milan (we have chosen 5 different castles for possible visitation). The city of Parma itself was founded in 183 BC as a Roman colony. Parma is also the home of “(Prosciutto) Parma hams.” Once we are “castled out” we will head on to Milan.

DAY # 26 Wednesday, May 1Stay Over MILAN I

Milan has a great subway system and we will use it along with other public transportation (bus). Visit the Duomo, with its treasury, Paleo-Christian Baptistery and museum, and the famous La Scala Opera House and Museum. The Pinacoteca Ambrosiana was built in 1648 AD to house Cardinal Federico Borromeo’s painting collection. Today it displays Leonardo Da Vinci’s “Portrait of a Musician” as well as a copy of his Codex Atlanticus (collected writings), plus works by Botticelli and Caravaggio. The Brera Art Gallery has Raphael’s “Wedding of the Madonna,” Piero della Francesca’s “Madonna and Child with Four Angels” and Caravaggio’s “Supper at Emmaus,” plus many more outstanding works. We personally use www.tickitaly.com, but there are many other online agencies to choose from.

NOTE: If any tours are not self-guided then remember to ask for an English speaking one. Remember to look carefully at all of what you want to do when we are in a city where reserved attraction(s) occur and you may want to spread out your “reserved” event(s) over the different days and “fill in” the balance of a day with the “lesser” events, so you do not run yourself ragged trying to get from one reserved event to the next.

† CARAVAN PAYMENTS

Only the motorhome rental and caravan fee portions of the estimated caravan cost are payable to OccsRV prior to the caravan departure. The balance is controlled by you and is on a "pay as you go" basis. To hold your place in a scheduled caravan (see caravan application for further details and restrictions) requires only a $650 initial deposit, $500 of which is to hold a motorhome and the balance is a $150 caravan processing fee and will be credited toward the $2,470 caravan fee.

OccsRV PAYMENT SCHEDULE

Fifteen days (15) after the reservation deadline, as shown on the caravan application, 1/2 of the estimated motorhome rental fee will need to be paid to OccsRV.

Thirty days (30) after the reservation deadline, as shown on the caravan application, the caravan fee balance of $2,320 will need to be paid to OccsRV.

Forty-Five days (45) after the reservation deadline, as shown on the caravan application, the balance of the motorhome rental fee will need to be paid to OccsRV.

*The motorhome rental price may vary until we make the final payment, as it, like all of the European portion of the estimated costs, is tied to the exchange rate between the US $ and Euro (€). All of the above estimated costs are based on the exchange rate between the Euro & the US $ (1.3:1) at the time of the estimate preparation (6/10/2012) and are solely to help you in estimating your trip costs and are not warranted to be the actual final costs involved. Except for the initial payments, as laid out above, the caravan is run on a "pay as you go" basis, therefore giving YOU control over some of your expenses. See "Caravan Payments" (†) explanation above.

NOTE: The estimated airfare is for departing from the west coast and will therefore be less from elsewhere &/or if you have frequent flyer miles that you wish to use or if you are able to use military flights.
